MAKE THIS WOUND YOUR MEDICINE

Rev. Jeff Munroe, Retired

In this session, Jeff Munroe will share from a new book project containing interviews with people who have not only experienced significant trauma but demonstrated great resilience and hope in the face of adversity, becoming, to use Frederick Buechner's phrase, "Good stewards of their pain." The book is a collection of stories meant to help us navigate these days of global pandemic and crisis.

GROWING IN GOD, THROUGH CHRIST JESUS

Rev. Dr. Jill Ver Steeg, President and CEO of Evergreen

Commons

Jill has extensive experience as a pastor of a large congregation in Des Moines, Iowa, as well her former work in executive leadership in the Reformed Church in America. She is passionate about discipleship and lifelong learning, and will share about her own hopes and reflections on always growing in God, through Christ Jesus.

Sunday Morning Bible Study

The Corinthian Correspondence: The Cross Changes Everything. A study with Rev. Dr. George Hunsberger.

This study takes place in room 22 on the lower level.

Office Reception Hours

Beginning the week of October 3, our office hours changed to Monday - Thursday, 8:30 to 4:30, and Fridays, 8:30 to noon.

Collections Available

1. In the Third Church archives we have bound copies of the Church Herald magazine, roughly from 1983 until 2004. We also have the orange General Synod minutes from 1988 through 2009. As these are duplicates of collections at both the Joint Archives of Holland and at the RCA, we are offering these to anyone in the congregation before we recycle them. If you are interested, please contact the office at office@trcholland.org. is $51K better than last year at the same point and $84K better than we budgeted.
